The Weymouth Gazette.

FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1884.

The Presidential Nomination.

The nomination of Hon. James G. Blaine as candidate for the Presidency, by the national republican convention, Chicago, was quite unexpected to many republicans in Massachusetts, who seem to have had but little knowledge of the enthusiasm for Blaine which existed in the western and Pacific states and carried the nomination on the high pressure principle. In Mr. Blaine's adopted state the nomination has excited a degree of enthusiasm which causes him the vote of Maine, and the campaign badge of the pine cone and legend, "The woods are full of them," will add to the popular feeling. In this state there is some kicking, the candidate's criticism of years ago which has not altogether subsided, but it is not to be inferred that antagonism to Blaine on this important point transcends the call for a meeting of republican and independent voters, to be held in Boston, as other elements of hostility enter into this impeachment of Blaine by his opponents in the republican party. We have received a circular from the secretary of the national organization, expressing the hope that we are in sympathy with the objects of this meeting, which hope is one of a very formal nature, as we cannot see the propriety of leaving the ranks because our predilections have not been gratified in the result of the convention, a long standing regard for and faith in the principles of the republican party forbidding a committee of this kind to any course which is calculated to endanger republican prospects in the national field. James G. Blaine is the regularly nominated candidate of the republican party, and through the independent Boston Herald and the said Advertiser have brought their artillery of condemnation to bear upon the nominee, it will very likely be nothing more than a popular demonstration, bringing error only to infants in politics. The republican party has a rank and file whose backbone is yet stiff enough to keep them in alignment, and we are confident that they will do all in their power to elevate their candidate to the presidential chair.

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN POLITICAL SOCIETY.

Weymouth, June 13, 1884.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 1.

The Commander in Chief himself of the first opportunity to congratulate the Post and its many friends on the success of their efforts to carry out the exercises of Memorial Day.

The weather was unusually cool but not uncomfortable for the performance of the exercises.

On behalf of the Post the Commander directed to remain in the ranks, with the exception of the children, to be taken to the cemetery and to be taken to the cemetery and to be taken to the cemetery.

We beg to offer our grateful acknowledgments to the good old town of Weymouth for its appreciation of the day, to its in deigning the expenses incident to the day.

To the Rev. S. J. Atwell for his instructive address, which gave the true and only defensible ground for being a Soldier, we extend most grateful thanks.

To the choir and members of Mr. Atwell's Parish we extend our thanks for the beautiful music furnished for the exercises, and to the many friends who assisted in making the day so pleasant and profitable.

We appreciate the kindly feeling that prompted the gift of the beautiful floral design, presented to the Post through the Commander.

To the Hon. Theodore T. Hoar, we feel an especial debt of gratitude for his address, which was so full of interest and instruction, and for his excellent address, which will be of great value to the town.

We do not forget the Rev. Mr. Deane's inspiring prayer to the address, and the beautiful service of the choir, which was a special feature of the day.

The Post was captivated with the short efforts of the Rev. committee, and the service was general in its character, both pastor and singers receive our best thanks. A most beautiful service of the day, and a most beautiful service of the day.

To the singing of the hymns, we extend our thanks for the beautiful service of the day, and for the beautiful service of the day.

To our town people, to the young ladies and ladies who came to the exercises, and to all who by kind words and deeds contributed to make the day a most beautiful day.

We desire also to express our appreciation of the beautiful floral design, which was a special feature of the day, and for the beautiful service of the day.

The Commander takes this opportunity to express his high appreciation of the prompt attention to orders and soldierly behavior on the part of members of the Post.

To the good work put in by the Company commanders and comrades, we extend our thanks for the beautiful service of the day, and for the beautiful service of the day.

The adjutant is hereby directed to publish the order in the Weymouth Gazette, and to copy it on the records of the Post.

By order of the Commander, CHAS. W. HASTINGS, Adjutant.

G. A. R. Meeting.

The next regular meeting of Post No. 6, G. A. R., will be held on Tuesday evening, the 17th inst., and a full attendance is especially desired. Final details of the Philadelphia trip will be arranged, and committees having names of comrades intending to go will report their lists, and the number of non-comrades, citizens, who desire to go on with the Post. Other matters of much interest will also be considered.

Per order of the Post, CHAS. W. HASTINGS, Adjutant.

Astronomical Problem.

The sun will be at the summer solstice on the evening of June 20th, and its declination at that time 23 degrees 26 minutes, 25 seconds north. Required the apparent time the sun will bear west from Town Hall, in latitude 42 degrees, 12 minutes north, also the sun's amplitude at the time of setting on that day.

South Weymouth, June 10, 1884.

Arrested.

Two Weymouth youths, James P. Griffin and Wallace B. Howell, were arrested before Judge Kelly, at Hingham, last Friday, having been charged with the evening before for breaking and entering the West Hingham depot May 29 and stealing $35. Both plead guilty and were held in $1000 for the grand jury; in default they were committed. Griffin was out of the State Reform School on probation, having been sent there for burglarizing the household of Attorney Brown. They have been confessed to breaking into the North Weymouth depot July 1, 1882, and stealing $25. Suspicion rested on them at the time, but they were not prosecuted, as there was not sufficient evidence, it was thought, to convict them.

Dissemination.

Patrick Curley left home last Saturday, his prolonged absence alarming his family, and as he was last seen in the vicinity of the factory pond at East Braintree, it was feared he had fallen into the pond and it was thought advisable to let the water off, but his return yesterday, a few hours previous to the time set for draining the pond, relieved the anxiety of his family. He had been visiting friends at Cambridge.

Paid.

The Ladies Cemetery Improvement Association will hold a fair next week, to obtain additional funds for improvement of the Village Cemetery. The grounds, through their aid, are being put in attractive condition, and the public should give the fair a liberal patronage.

Temperance Lecture.

All those who heard the lecture on temperance delivered in Union church several months since, by Rev. James Yarnes, of England, will be glad to learn that the services of the same gentleman have been secured for a like purpose, and he will speak at the above church next Sunday evening, at half-past 7. The public are cordially invited.

Business Notice.

Mr. Louis W. Nash has purchased the entire stock in the store of the late E. G. Tirrell, on Lincoln square, and in his card in another column may be found a list of articles which our readers should not fail to examine. The store has always had a good reputation among buyers, and in the hands of Mr. Nash this old stand will lose none of its prestige.

Outdoor Concerts.

The Weymouth Band will give their first outdoor concert of the season at North Weymouth, Saturday evening, June 14th, the selections being as follows:

March, Salutation.

Medley, "Yankee Doodle."

Coronet Solo, "Lizzie Polka," B. S. Clapp.

Waltz, "Sitting by the Sparkling Wine," Gens. of Germany.

Schottische, "Shoo's such a Loo."

March, Selected.

Home, Sweet Home, arranged by R. F. H.

Death.

A letter received here Tuesday evening, announced the death of Michael Conrick, formerly of Weymouth, at San Francisco. His relatives have telegraphed for particulars of his decease, which the letter failed to give.

Outgoing.

Last Saturday afternoon a party of natives and friends comprising four generations, gathered at the house of Mr. Barker, in East Braintree, to commemorate the birth birthday of Mrs. Mary Sylvester, of Massachusetts, who was born on the same day, with her husband, Mr. Barker, in 1810.

Some persons were given, a treat was prepared, and a picnic was held. The reunion was a very agreeable affair to all present.

Children's Sunday Exercise.

At the Union Church was of marked interest, the exercises being judiciously varied with addresses and music. The report of the "Society" revealed a gain in number of scholars and attendance, as well as in numbers. The number now connected with the school is 247, including officers and 18 teachers, and 15 members of the school have united with the church this past year. The choir point of interest in the exercises Sunday morning was the address of A. S. Lovett, Esq., of Boston, who was a subject in the rebellion, and whose remarks were very appropriate to the occasion.

A bold attempt to burn the business house of Mrs. A. C. Cushing, was made Friday night last, a few minutes past 12 o'clock, by an incendiary. Fortunately Mrs. Cushing was awakened by a noise supposed to have been made by the fire, and in turning the flames were extinguished, and the building was saved.

Children's Day had a beautiful observance at each of the Congregational churches on last Sunday, and ample and attractive exercises, together with the brightest and most fragrant of the flowers of June, helped to fix in the memory of the children, the lessons of the day. The day was a most successful one, and the children were very much interested in the exercises.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. intend to have Mrs. Whitman's lecture for sale at their rooms on Tuesday evening of each week.

A great improvement could be made in the city if more citizens would take pains to trip the sidewalks to front of their houses, the change being especially noticeable wherever it has been done. All weeds should be removed along the gutters and every attempt at neatness in selection and boarding, gas fostered and encouraged.

Miss Abbie Blackard, connected with the California extension on Friday, Miss Lina Lord, who has been visiting in Riverside, Cal., also coming home with the party.

Twenty teachers went from this village in Randolph last Friday to attend the teachers convention held there. They were conveyed in the city with Mr. W. Lord's Express House and coach, given for the occasion, and returned on the same coach.

A bold attempt to burn the business house of Mrs. A. C. Cushing, was made Friday night last, a few minutes past 12 o'clock, by an incendiary. Fortunately Mrs. Cushing was awakened by a noise supposed to have been made by the fire, and in turning the flames were extinguished, and the building was saved.

Registration of Voters.
The board of selectmen held a meeting yesterday afternoon, to make their appointments of Registrars of Voters, in accordance with the provisions of the act of the Legislature passed at the last session, establishing boards of this character, and the selectmen appointed:

Benjamin F. Smith, of Weymouth, for one year;
David S. Murray, of So. Weymouth, for two years;
Francis A. Bicknell, of North Weymouth, for three years.

J. A. Raymond, Town Clerk, is a member of the board, ex officio.

By the provisions of the law these Registrars must be appointed from the two leading political parties.

The board will be required to prepare a new registry, and will hold their sessions at the town hall. Due notice will be given to voters of the time to appear for registration.

The time of closing the registration has been changed from Saturday evening to Wednesday evening before the close, at 10 P. M.

The new law was framed to secure more efficient protection against fraud in the franchise, and is quite stringent in its provisions bearing upon the Registrars. Any registrar who shall refuse or wilfully neglect to require an applicant for registration to read and sign the oath, or knowingly suffer or shall allow such person to be placed on the list, or who shall refuse to furnish a list of the names of the voters, shall be liable to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in jail for not more than one year for each offense; and any registrar who knowingly and wilfully prevents, or seeks to prevent, the registration of any legal voter, or knowingly and wilfully registers the name of a person not qualified to vote, or shall be guilty of any other fraud or corrupt conduct in the execution of the duties of his office shall be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars for each offense. The law requires the use of a self-registering ballot box in elections.

The anticipated excursion of Post 56, A. R. to Philadelphia, next week will not occur at present, owing to a postponement of the unveiling of the Reynolds Monument. A postal from the committee reads as follows:

"The Committee of the Reynolds Monument Association have just received notice from the Messrs. Douglas Brothers, contractors for the pedestal, that the Messrs. Douglas Brothers, of Weymouth, Mass., the subcontractors for the granite, will not be able to complete the pedestal by July 1st, nor for a month or more from that date, although their contract agreement was for the 15th of June. The status itself will, it is believed, be ready by the time fixed—both the sculptor, Mr. John Rogers, and the Bronze Foundry, Messrs. Buren Brothers, have reported. The committee have, however, decided to avoid all contingencies, by postponing the unveiling until Wednesday, Sept. 17th. Due notice of the order of the proceedings for that date will be given. Regretting the delay, the Committee feel that it is best to wait until the whole work is complete."

Children's Sunday.
Was observed at the First Universalist Church last Sabbath, a large audience gathering in the morning to listen to the discourse of Rev. Mr. Eaton, who took for his text, the words of our Saviour, "Suffer the little children to come unto me," and made the subject of Christian work for the little ones the basis of a very applicable discourse.

At the close of the sermon the baptism of several children took place. The pupils and platform were elegantly and profusely adorned with flowers. The evening service was in continuation of the exercises of the day, and the children of the Sunday school gave the exercise "Consider the Lilies," in interesting manner.

At the Baptist church the afternoon service was devoted to appropriate exercises for the children's day, in charge of Des. S. W. Goss, the superintendent of the Sunday school. A large number of the children took part in the exercises, which included singing, recitations, and concert exercises by the infant class and other classes. A collection was taken for the benefit of the Baptist Publication Society in its Sunday school work.

Lawyer.
One of these unique and agreeable entertainments was given last Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. J. H. Lord, on Kent street, by the Ladies' Aid Society of Trinity church, in furtherance of the church work. The grounds were gaily decorated with flags and illuminated with lanterns and occasional exhibition of colored lights. Hammocks for swinging were placed under the trees, and tables on the lawn were devoted to the sale of refreshments and fancy articles. Music was furnished for dancing indoors and on the lawn and vocal music was rendered by the choir. Various games occupied the afternoon. The guests were most numerous and all participants in the party pronounced the occasion one of much interest and enjoyment.

Fireworks.
The revised list of July 4th exhibitions of fireworks to be given by Mr. E. S. Hunt, of this town, is as follows: Boston; Marblehead; Brockton; Salem; Portland; Mr. B. H. M. Jones; Mr. D. W. Dyer; N. H. Littleton; N. H. Moutpelier, Vt.

Arrival.
Mrs. Judge Hillyer, of Washington, arrived here last Tuesday and will stay at the home place with her sister, Miss Ellen Alden, through the summer. Mrs. Hillyer will prepare a selection of her father's poems for publication in a volume.

Accident.
Saturday last Mr. R. V. Yarnes was severely injured by being run over by his team. He was engaged in hauling strawberries, and had just come out of the yard of Mr. Chas. on, on Summer street, when his horse started, and in endeavoring to stop him he fell and the wagon passed over his chest and shoulder, causing severe injury. His face also being bruised. Dr. Towse was called to attend him.
